Express Yourself in Words

The Class of '91 expressed itself in words the past four years. Since Pope John is known for its note passing during class, one way to recall the past years here is to write a note to the whole class, using certain familiar words and phrases:

Hey Class of 1991,

What's up? Nothin' much here. Just decided to write you a little note to reflect on the past years at Pope John. Remember past assemblies when we said such unthinking things as, "That's retarded," or "This is stupid," but yet we still got something out of the assemblies? Remember when we were juniors and beat the seniors in the Powder Puff game? "Aye Caramba," what a slaughter! Of course, some of the boys had to get in on the action so they "took down" the seniors in the Tug-o-War on Pride Day. But, hey, what do you expect? We do rule!! We will never 4-get those torturous hours of classes when we sat there saying, "Slow down," or "I'm so confused."

We have to admit we had some "awesome times" here, like the Freshman Social, Chinese Night, the Snowball, the proms, and, of course, the school-wide dances. We'll never 4-get "60 seconds before school begins," Fr. Raeke's morning prayers, announcements with Sr. Pat, and sports with Mr. Passanisi.

We all have to agree that the most difficult challenge we had to go through was getting to our lockers. The locker space was small enough so that it only made matters worse when people yelled, "Outta my way!" and pushed into the crowd.

Well, it's been a great four years, but we "gotta go." There's only one thing more left to say . . . "We're outta here!" C-ya!!

Express Yourself in the Community

Freshman year we grinned at our principal when we spoke about the Pope John community. We weren't so sure.

In the beginning, it was tough, but with folks like Mr. DeBona encouraging us, we got involved with the Walk for Peace. Of course, every year lots of us helped feed the hungry, as we bravely battled the streets of Boston and the blisters on our feet during the Walk for Hunger.

This spirit of helping others carried us through senior year. Programs like Campus Ministry and Christian Service told the school and the world that Pope John was here and ready to help. This spirit was felt both close to home and worldwide. Groups were established to help others in Third World countries. Active members collected money and wrote letters to improve human dignity in groups such as Por Cristo and Amensty International.

Within the school itself, the community pulled together. Many students traveled to Florida to kick back and relax. Other more adventurous members of the class chose to span the globe and travel to Italy. When not on vacation, we sold calendars, collected money for "The Walk," and always gave money to any worthy cause. All in all, our years at Pope John have produced a sense of belonging, security, and many memories we will miss long after we are gone.

Express Yourself with Style

Pope John students express themselves through style, whether it is their hair styles, the shoes they wear, their jewelry, or even their clothes. All Pope John students express themselves differently.

Some girls may style their hair wildly, as compared with those who prefer the natural look. Trying to stay out of detention and trouble, boys have given up carving on their heads in return for a more "Pope John acceptable" style.

Since we have a dress code, some people choose to express themselves through the shoes they wear. In the past few years the patent leather dancing shoes have become popular among the boys and girls. Besides the patent leather, girls prefer colorfully decorated shoes or just plain flats, while bucks and moccasins are favorites among the boys.

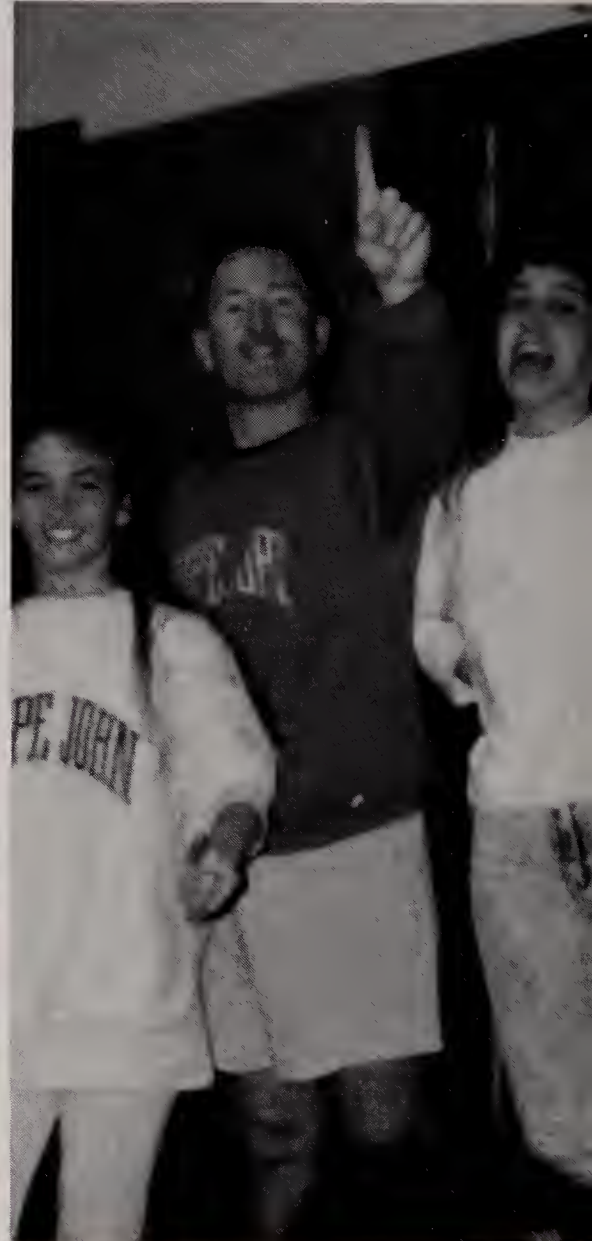

The girls try to accessorize the usual plaid ensemble with an excessive amount of jewelry, such as big earrings, rings, chains, and charms. If boys would wear earrings, they probably would wear them, too.

In school, boys dress-up the restricted dress code with fashionable shirts and pants and fancy ties. Girls choose to wear decorative socks as part of their uniforms. Outside of school, Champion sweatshirts tend to be the most popular article of clothing, along with jeans, sweaters, tee shirts, and shorts.

The ways people express themselves show their individuality. Since we are not all alike, we try to express ourselves differently.

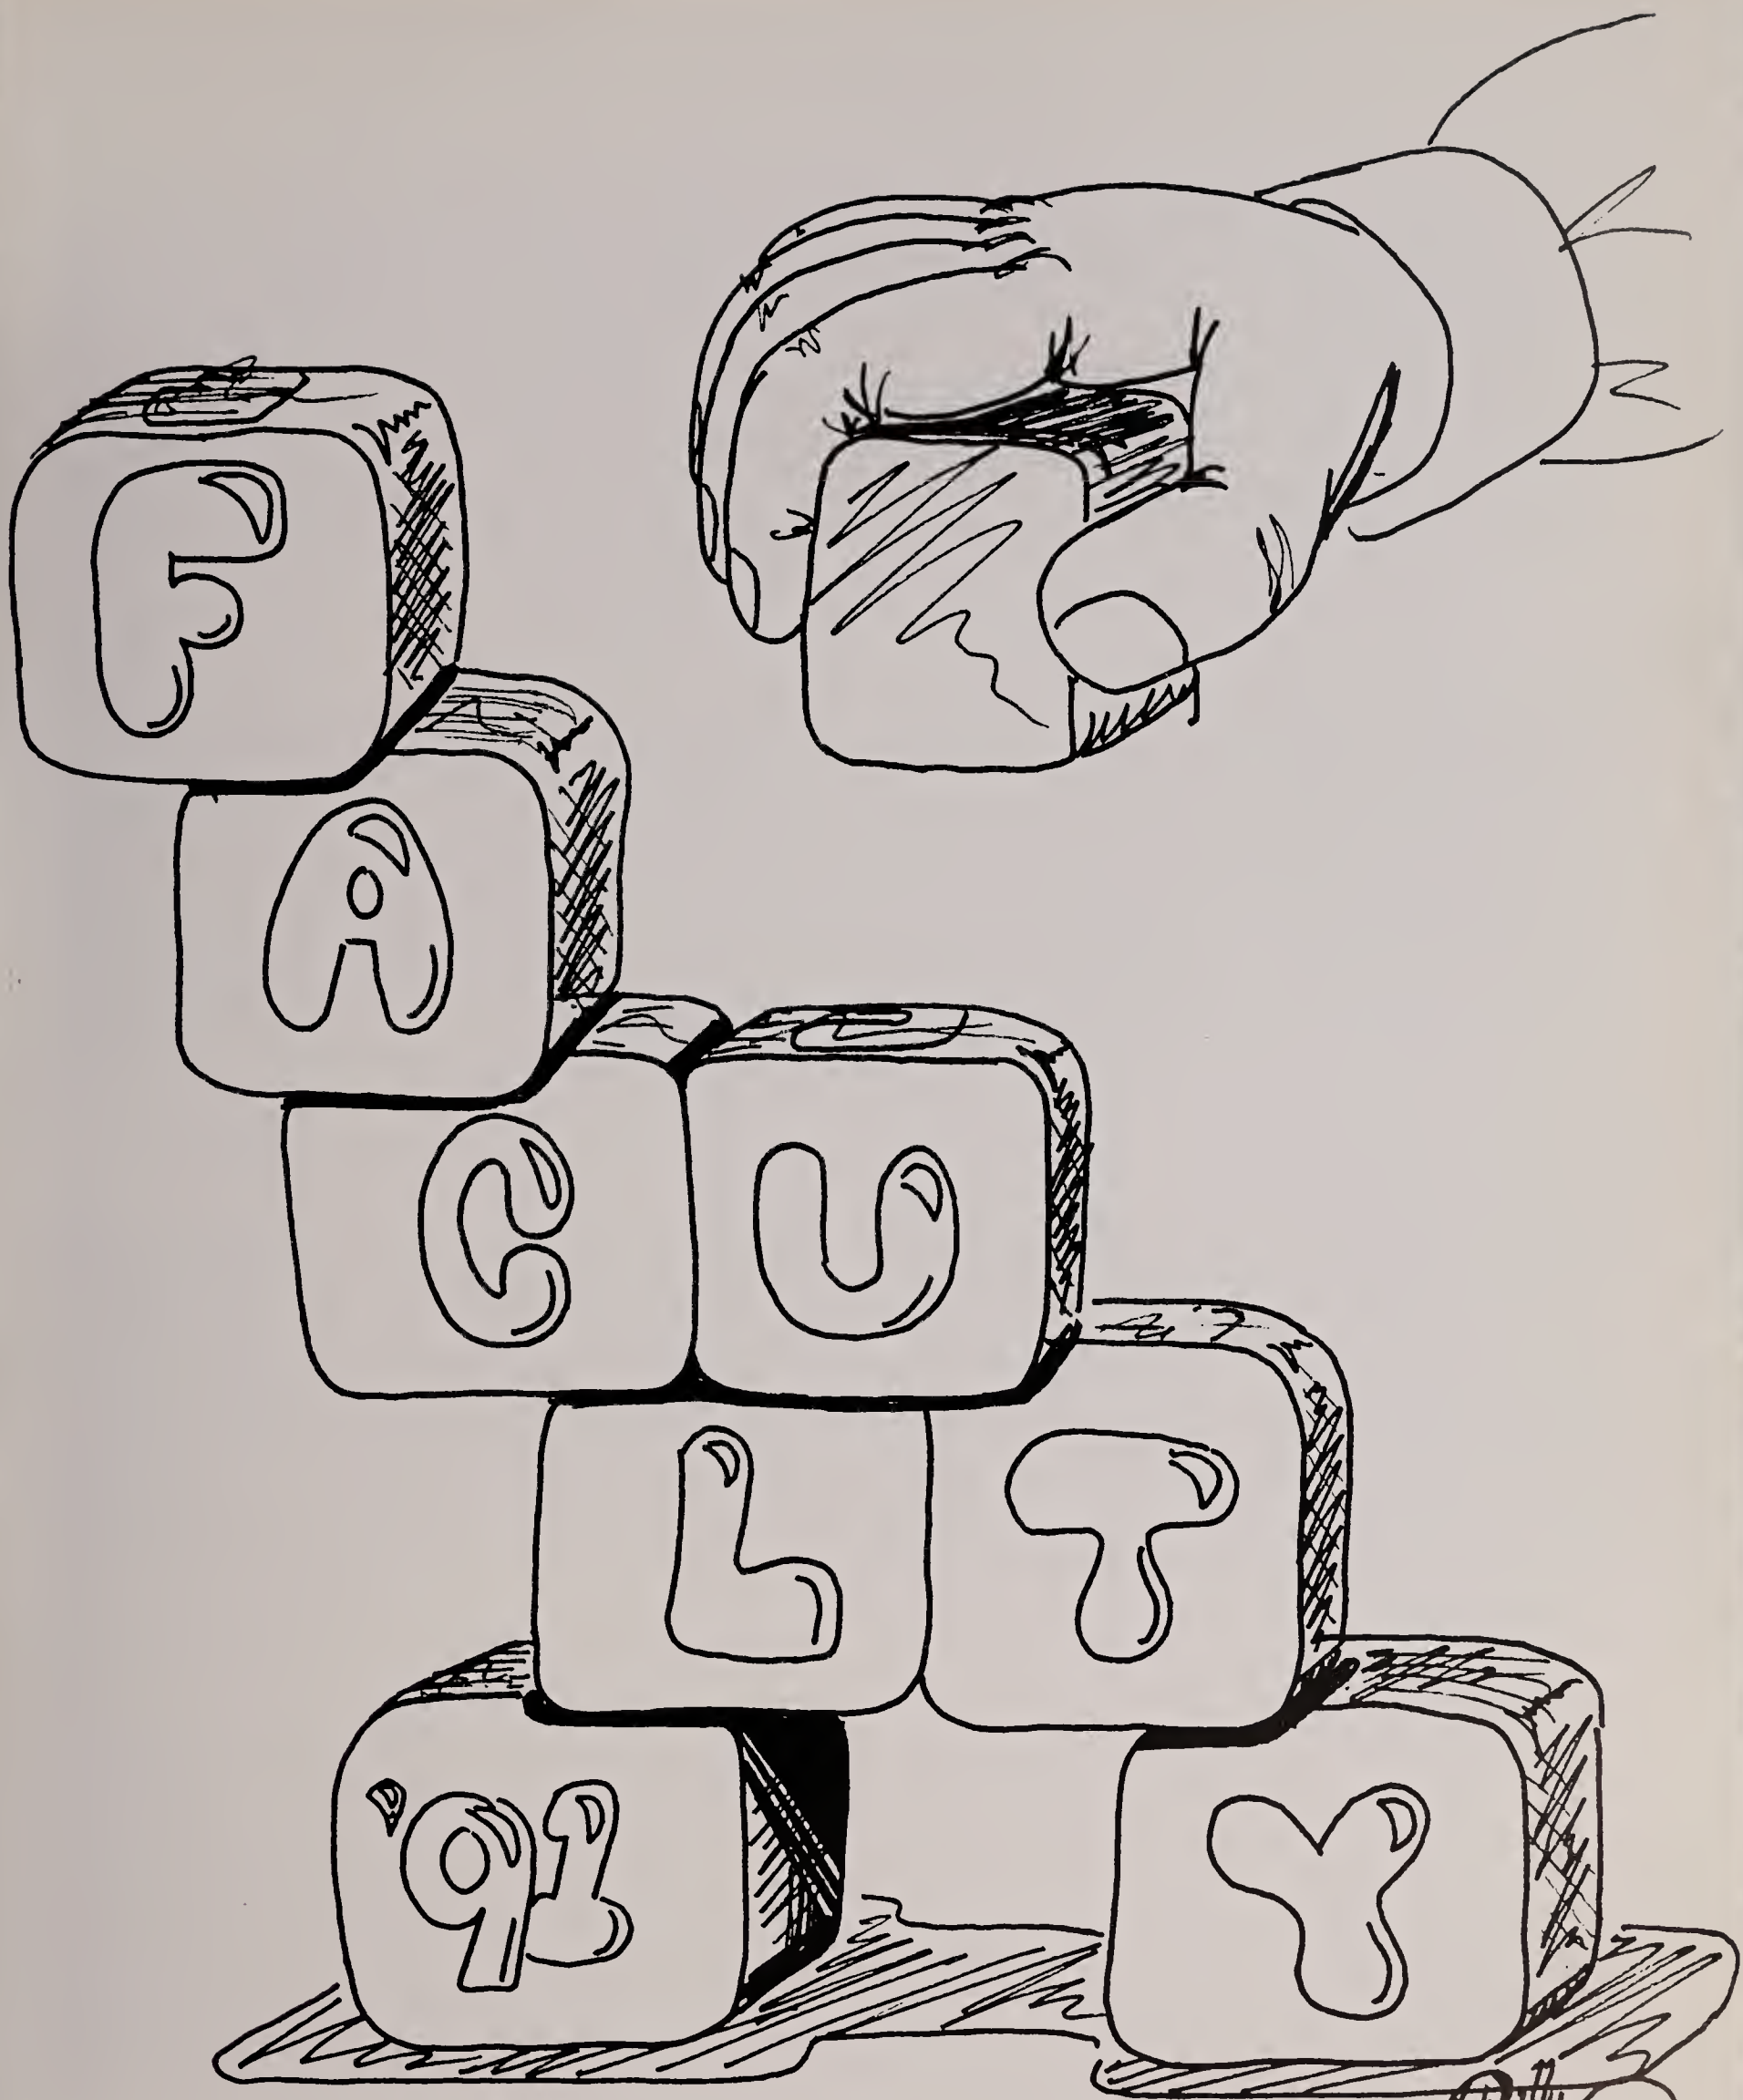

Express Yourself with Spirit

Pope John athletes express themselves in fall, winter, and spring. Whether on the court, field, track, or ice, each member displays team spirit. Remember the days when we demolished the Class of '90 in the Powder Puff game and in the Tug-o-War on Pride Day? How about the day when we outscramed the Class of '89 at the sports rally? From individual accomplishments to team victories, students always find a way to express their Tiger Pride.

The soccer team re-emerged as a competitive program this fall under the direction of first year coach Pat Dailey. The team experienced a slow start, but they ended the season on a high note earning one win and two ties in the final half of the season. With a core of returning underclassmen, despite the loss of several key seniors, a strong competitive program can be expected in the fall.

The Volleyball team won its third Catholic Central League Championship in the last five years and qualified for the state tournament for the fifth time in the last six years. The team finished with a league record of 8-2 and overall record of 14-6. The most memorable come-from-behind victory was at Bishop Fenwick with a winning score of 16-14, after the team trailed 13-5 in the third game. The win that clinched the League Championship for Pope John was against defending champs Arlington Catholic when the team was supported by many devoted fans some of whom had "tiger paws" painted on their faces. The tri-captains Andrea Horne, Christine O'Connor, and Robin Simmons were selected to the All-Star Team.

The year 1990 marked the twenty-fifth season which Pope John has fielded a football team. The squad was a small but hard-working group of representatives from all four classes. Senior captains Rob D'Amato, Frank LoNano and Pat Wilcox were named Catholic Central League All-Stars as they and their senior colleagues Pete Elwell, Keith Sherman, Jan Stryzewski and Sal Citro led the Tigers through a tough ten-game schedule.

Highlights of the 2-win, 8-loss season included a spectacular four touchdown performance by Rob D'Amato against St. Clement to establish a new school record and a thrilling inaugural victory over the Red Devils of Chelsea High on Thanksgiving morning. Head Coach Bill Perkins completed his twenty-third year at the helm assisted by John Kearney and newcomer John Amentola.

Also, she placed first in the Catholic Conference League Meet, making her the league's valuable player and two-year league All-Star. Jennifer also placed fourth in the Eastern Mass State Meet, and fifth in the All-State Meet. She was the only Catholic school girl to place in the top fifteen.

Players with talent, both old and new, helped fire up the 1991 boys' basketball team. Although the team started out slowly, the Tigers fought back and gained their strength. By the end of the season, teamwork allowed the team to have a good time on the court, whether they won or lost.

This was one of the best years the Pope John Hockey Team had seen in a long time. Their record was 8-5-1, and they needed only five more points in their next four games to qualify for the State Championship. The tri-captains Jim Mahoney, Scott Ardita, and Chris Russell contributed to the team in many ways: Jim Mahoney as the leading scorer, Scott Ardita for his many key plays, and Chris Russell for his outstanding team defense. This was a great winning team.

Though only in their second year of competition, the Pope John track team has made a great start. The runners train hard, and as a result, they managed to take first, second, or third places in every meet. Captains Jennifer Burke, Amy Hubble, Jennifer Fusco, and Jennifer Davis kept enthusiasm high as everyone diligently ran through the halls. Assisting them were Peggy Dyer, Mary-Ellen Doherty, Maria Bozzoto, Antonietta Coviello, and Maria Coviello.

Be Yourself

The World Would Like To Change You;
There Are Pressures All Around.
You Must Decide Just Who You Are,
Then Firmly Hold Your Ground.

You Have An Image Of Yourself,
An Ideal Sense Of You;
And To This Vision You Must Always Struggle To Be True.

You Know What You Are Good At,
And You Know Where Talents Lie;
But If You're Ruled By Others,
Your Uniqueness Could Pass By.

Remember, There Is Much To Learn;
But All New Things Aren't Good.
Wisdom Lies In What You've Learned
And What You Have Withstood.

So, Be Yourself And Don't Allow
The World To Take Control.
Preserving Your Identity
Is Life's Most Precious Goal.

- Bruce B. Wilmer

We, the Class of 1991, dedicate this yearbook to the
